The Alien Adventure

Once on a far, far away planet lived four Aliens! One was yellow that always felt happy. One was light green that always felt hungry and the other two were blue and always felt helpful. One of the blue Aliens was very, very, very small!

On the other side of the world lived a little puppy called Ruff! One day Ruff felt like a walk in space! Later that morning when Ruff's owner was out in town Ruff got some tools and started to build a rocket! When he had finished he jumped into the rocket and blasted off to the moon.

and met the Aliens! Ruff asked the aliens what their names were and they said "Bluetip, Bleper, Spotted and Messy." Bleper said "What's your name?"

"Ruff" said Ruff.

"Well then Ruff, would you like some soup?" said Messy. "Oh yes please" said Ruff. So Messy took Ruff to the cave and said "Just choose what you want out of the cupboard". Back outside Bluetip was looking inside Ruff's ship! Meanwhile Messy and Ruff came running out of the cave! The Aliens got a piece of gold!

Messy shouted "It's missing!"

"What's missing?" asked Bleper.

"The gold!" shouted Messy.
